MOL Global, Inc. Class Action Lawsuit Resolved

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia, February, 24, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- MOL Global, Inc. (Nasdaq:MOLG) ("MOL" or the "Company"), a leading e-payment enabler for online goods and services in emerging and developed markets, announced today an agreement has been reached to settle the consolidated class action lawsuit against MOL, certain of its current and former officers and directors, and underwriters which was initially filed in November 2014. The settlement does not require any reserve and will be covered by insurance.

The litigation, In re MOL Global, Inc. Securities Litigation, pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, asserted class action claims under federal securities laws based on allegations of misstatements and omissions by MOL and certain of its current and former officers and directors. The final settlement of this lawsuit is conditional upon completion of appropriate documentation and approval by the Court. If approved by the Court, the settlement will lead to dismissal of the lawsuit.

Safe Harbor Statement

This announcement contains forward-looking statements. These statements are made under the "safe harbor" provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements can be identified by terminology such as "will," "expects," "anticipates," "future," "intends," "plans," "believes," "estimates," "confident," "target," "going forward" and similar statements. Among other things, our strategic and operational plans contain forward-looking statements. We may also make written or oral forward-looking statements in our periodic reports to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, in our annual report to shareholders, in press releases and other written materials and in oral statements made by our officers, directors or employees to third parties. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about our beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties. A number of factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement, including but not limited to the following: our growth strategies; our future business development, including development of new products and services; our ability to attract and retain users and customers; competition in each of the markets in which we operate; changes in our revenues and certain cost or expense items as a percentage of our revenues; and the expected growth of the e-payment market and the number of e-payment users. Further information regarding these and other risks is included in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement, except as required under applicable law. All information provided in this press release and in the attachments is as of the date of the press release, and we undertake no duty to update such information, except as required under applicable law.
